It is each member's duty to adhere to the letter and spirit of his/her practice according to this Code of Ethics. Each individual is obligated and agrees to be responsible for his or her conduct as follows:

- A. Conduct his/her appraisal activities in a professional manner, demonstrating the highest level of integrity, which will reflect credit upon himself/herself, and the accrediting organization, the Association of Machinery and Equipment Appraisers.
- B. The appraiser can accept only those assignments that he/she is competent to perform and has the knowledge and ability to perform in a professional manner.

- E. The appraiser shall prepare the appraisal report and the opinions expressed in it are his/hers and not that of another party.
- F. All appraisals are to be held in strict confidence between the appraiser and his/her client, and shall not be furnished to another party unless specifically requested to do so by his/her client or a court of law.
- G. The appraiser shall conform in all respects to the Code of Ethics and the Standards and Procedures of Professional Appraisal Practice of the Association of Machinery and Equipment Appraisers.
